Plus, the women of the Class of 1974 will be gifted a commemorative scarf at Reunions check-in, which is decorated with the ginkgo leaves that are so iconic to Grounds and symbolize hope, strength, and resilience.

Event Highlights

Here's a sample of just some of the 70+ Reunions events we're excited about!

1974 Women's Tour of Grounds

Thursday at 11:30 a.m. ET

Join University Guides for a special tour of Grounds! This unique session will focus on the process of gradual integration of women at the University of Virginia from the 1820's through the 1970s.

Speaking of Women

Friday at 9 a.m. ET

Join Mary Kate Cary, former speechwriter for President George HW Bush and director of the Karsh Institute of Democracy's Think Again @ UVA, for a discussion about the three greatest speeches by women in American history.

Alumna Panel: Reflections from the Women of 1974

Saturday at 3:30 p.m. ET

A panel of 1974 alumnae will reflect on their unique journeys, the ways they forged community and created space for women on Grounds, and the lessons they've carried with them as trailblazing Hoos.

On-Grounds Accommodations

Having a hard time finding a hotel for Reunions? Consider staying in a dorm on Grounds! The Alumni Association partners with Conferences@UVA to offer on-Grounds housing in dorms during Reunions. With rates starting at ~$50/night and no minimum stay required, you won't find a better deal in Charlottesville!

Reservations close two weeks before Reunions weekend (Thursday, May 16), and cancellations must be made no later than 21 days before your arrival date to avoid a penalty. Visit the Conferences@UVA website to make your on-Grounds housing reservation today.
